WITH THE MORGAN COUNTY MEN AT CAMP TAYLOR, KY.

Cantonment is Now Settling Down to Routine Work of Army Building

Men from This Vicinity are Learning First Aid Measures—Work of Rescuing Fallen Comrades May Fall to Their Lot—Instruction in Sanitary Train Department of Highly Technical Nature.

(By Staff Correspondent.)
Camp Taylor, Ky.—Special—Morgan county men will be the "angels of mercy" in no-man's land when the 84th division goes into battle. The lot of giving first aid to the wounded lying out on the shell torn stretch between the trenches will fall to them. To equip them for this work, the farmers, the merchants, the clerks and the lawyers of Jacksonville and vicinity are learning things they never knew before and never in their lives expected to learn.

Now that Camp Taylor is settling down to the routine of army building, the status of these men in the 84th division can be noted. With the selective service men from Scott, Green, Calhoun, Jersey and Pike counties, the boys from Morgan county form the 36th Sanitary Train, consisting of four field hospital companies and four ambulance companies.

What the Sanitary Train is.
The sanitary train is a new nomenclature in the United States army, having arisen since the beginning of the European war. Heretofore, the work of this outfit was performed by the hospital corps. Now the work of stretcher bearing, ambulance driving, first aid to wounded, and hospital duties falls to the Sanitary Train.

Instruction Highly Technical.
Instruction in this branch of service is highly technical and demands considerable study and concentration on the part of the men. In the few weeks they have been here, the Central Illinois soldiers have stored away an amount of learning which is marvelous considering the brevity of their instruction.

They have learned something of the anatomy of the body, the structure of bones, the setting of broken bones, the circulation of the blood, the names of blood veins and principal arteries, methods of handling and dressing severed arteries, and what is of equal importance, they are learning how to pick up a wounded man without hurting him and how to tell an unconscious living soldier from a dead one just by looking at him.

Officer by Experienced Physicians.
This instruction has come in lectures delivered every day by some of the best equipped surgeons in the United States. Every officer in the Sanitary Train is a physician of long experience. He must be so, or he cannot be an officer in this important branch. Major C. J. Imperatori, surgeon in charge of the field hospital companies, is an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist of the famous Bellevue hospital of New York City. He is also a brain surgeon of exceptional note. He was in charge of field hospital work for the New York National Guard for several years. In coming to the National Army he sacrificed a practice of many thousands of dollars a year. Maj. Paul R. Fletcher, director of the ambulance companies, is a St. Louis physician of wide reputation. He was a member of the St. Louis city council before going into the army.

Get Plenty of Drilling.
In addition to the instruction given in lectures, the men have received almost as much drill and other military training as the infantry units. To see them drill on the parade grounds adjoining their barracks, one would believe them finished veterans. All of the Morgan county men are uniformed, except for a few who are still awaiting trousers that will fit them. According to their officers they have shown aptitude for picking up the infantry drills that are remarkable.

Handling Wounded Men an Art.
If one believes it is not a considerable task to pick up a man with a broken leg, place him on a stretcher and carry him several hundred yards without making him howl, he should try it. No work of the Sanitary Train is more important than this, because the severe shock of being moved many times often prevents a man's recovery unless he is handled with great care.

How They Will Work.
The four ambulance companies have 519 men and 23 officers, while the field hospital companies have 329 men and 27 officers. The ambulance equipment consists of both motor drawn and mule drawn vehicles, and a number of motor cycles. Each ambulance company has three motor ambulances and one mule team ambulance. Each hospital company has three field hospitals, the hospital consisting of six ward tents, having a total capacity of 216 patients. These hospitals have all the necessary instruments for operations, dressings and a full supply of medicines. They are stationed about 200 yards back of the fighting line, and of course must be loaded on motor trucks and be in readiness to pack up and move at all times. They operation. The stretcher bearers go into no-man's land, pick out their wounded, and if necessary give them first aid right there where they lie. They then bring the wounded back to the field hospital where more thorough treatment is administered. From the field hospital the injured are sent to base hospitals.

Sanitary Train Reorganized.
Since the opening of this cantonment the Sanitary Train has undergone considerable reorganization. While only the first quota men were here the Morgan county boys were in one company but with the coming of the second and third quotas they have been scattered in various companies. Forty-five have been transferred to the 334th Ambulance company. Twenty-four have gone to the base hospital, which is a mile distant from the 39th Sanitary Train, and six are in the 335th Field Hospital company. The men transferred to the base hospital probably will be permanently attached there. Their work, therefore, will be far behind the fighting lines when they get to France, but in view of the repeated bombing of hospitals by German airmen, they still will be engaged in a hazardous task.

First Six in Field Hospital Company.
The six Morgan county men remaining in the field hospital company are Walter L. Andre, Frank H. Kormeyer, Kenneth V. Skeens, Herman L. Evans, Fred Reagel and Charles Radford. Kormeyer has gained 12 pounds since his arrival and looks like a real fighting man. Skeens is one of the motorcycle repair men of the company. Evans, nicknamed "Chink," is reputed to be the clown of the company. He keeps the boys in lively spirits with many a joke and grotesque antic. He acquired his nickname from the fact that when he goes broke he operates a little Chinese laundry, doing the washing for his comrades at reduced rates. Fred Reagel is to be transferred to the division signal corps where he will be one of the expert telephone men. He was in telephone work in Waverly, where his father is president of a bank. Charles Radford is the company barber. He operates on a hand made barber chair, consisting of two boards placed at right angles to each other. Andre, who was in the furniture business in Jacksonville, is to be made property sergeant of his company, which carries with it an increase of about $20 a month in pay. The appointment has not yet been made but he has been recommended for the position by his captain. Other men are soon to be appointed to non-commissioned officerships, but the list has not yet been approved and is therefore not available for publication.

Andre Having Foot Trouble.
Andre has been having trouble with his feet and has not drilled for three weeks. His foot arches had a tendency to break down and the doctors ordered him to remain away from drilling until the feet become stronger. Andre says he is enjoying the life.

Compliments Officers.
"I have lost seven pounds under the outdoor exercise, and am getting hard and toughened," he said, sitting on the edge of his bunk near the big coal stove in his barracks. "We are very well treated, have enough to eat and have splendid officers. This is like a great factory, where every man has one thing to do. We are told what to do and we do it without question. That is the science of military life. There should be no weeping back here over our lot. We are happy and contented. It is remarkable the way in which the boys take hold and shape themselves into soldiers. They know they have a great task before them and they are going to it like men. Our mess officer is Sergeant Hetherly, a regular army man, and he certainly knows how to satisfy big appetites."

Men from Scott, Green and Jersey counties are in the barracks with Andre and the other Morgan county men.

Contribute to Liberty Loan.
This company has contributed $10,390 to the liberty loan subscription at Camp Taylor. The entire 39th Sanitary Train has made an enviable record in the liberty loan sale. The first list published showed their name at the top, having subscribed more than any other unit, some of the infantry regiments are twice as large. They now stand in third place, having been surpassed by the 36th and 334th Infantry regiments. The last report showed their total subscription to be over $50,000, not a small portion of which has been subscribed by the Jacksonville and other Morgan county boys.

Those Transferred to 336th Ambulance Co.
The Morgan county men transferred from the field hospital to the 336th Ambulance company are: Morris Walsh, Oliver Taylor, William Longman, Roy Leonard, Edward Clayton, Emory Newby, Ignatius Cicero, Jacksonville; William Eads, Jacksonville; Carter, Jacksonville; Homer Baptist, Jacksonville; Francis Purcell, Jacksonville; Lloyd Spires, Jacksonville; Fred German, Jacksonville; Louis P. Haeck, Jacksonville; J. P. Johnson, Jacksonville; William Riddler, Walter Stapleton, Boone Hall, Lyle Dennis, Howard Hower, Jacksonville; Carl Williams, William Rogers, Frank Meneses, Jacksonville; Joe Briggs, Fred E. Henderson, Homer Seymour, Claude Cline, Jacksonville; John Heriford, Harry Salby, Jacksonville; Harold Gilham, Jacksonville; Ernest Alford, Russell Miller, John Atkinson, Richard Widing, Harold Stewart, Ben Stewart, Jacksonville; George Willoughby, George Elliott, Lloyd Green, Charles Weghoff, Taylor Alderson, Fred Hall, Jacksonville; Sam Richards, Jacksonville; Edward T. Kueh-pin, R. J. Lippert, William Howe and A. M. Abernathy. These men are located just across the company street, about 100 yards from the six Morgan men in the field hospital.

Johnson is Transferred.
J. P. Johnson, formerly of the Douglas hotel, has been transferred to the quartermasters' department.

Has Task of Breaking Horses.
A number of horses and mules have been delivered to the train from the remount depot. Many of the horses are not broke to ride and some of the Morgan farmer boys, who have handled horses since they wore skirts, have been assigned to the task of taming these animals. Russell Miller, who lives a few miles from Jacksonville, is one of the men assigned to this job. He has been riding horses for several weeks. He says they are not very wild and can be broken to ride in a short time. The horses and mules will be used to draw the wagon ambulances.

Lloyd Spires Convalescing.
Lloyd Spires has been in the base hospital for sometime with pneumonia. He is now convalescing. Several of the boys called on him Sunday.

Enjoy Baseball Game.
The 335th company and the 336th played a baseball game Sunday, the score being 9 to 7 in favor of the 335th. Several Jacksonville men played on the winning team.

Men Give Banquet to Officers.
The men of the 334th have rented a player piano and have music almost all hours of the day. Each man contributed $1 a month to the company fund, from which funds are drawn for table dainties, music and banquets. They expect soon to give a banquet for their officers.

Gave Banquet Tuesday Evening.
The members of the 336th Ambulance company were to have an elaborate banquet and entertainment Tuesday evening in which they call the annex of their barracks, a building not yet occupied. They contributed $1 a piece to the fund and were to have all the officers of the Sanitary train present. The menu planned was as follows: Oyster cocktail, Fried Chicken, Giblet sauce, creamed mashed potatoes, fruit salad, fruit olives, sweet pickles, ice cream, coffee (with cream a real treat), Payland Creme de la Creme (a mystery), a la Camille cigarettes and cigars. The dining room was to be adorned with corn stalks and fall leaves. An entertainment of singing and instrumental music by the men of the company was to follow the eats.

The program was in charge of Sergeant E. R. Myers. Abernathy and Howe were to perform. Sergeant P. H. Cunningham is first sergeant of this company.

Glossop Made an Orderly.
James E. Glossop of Scott county and A. R. Grammer of Pike county have been made orderlies in the headquarters of the field hospital department of the sanitary train. Sergeant Arthur E. C. Koester of Rochester, N. Y., a regular army enlisted man, is in charge of the office.

Should Be Well Packed.
Sergeant Koester desires to suggest to the "folks back home" that they take more care in wrapping and packing edibles sent to the men. Much good food is wasted because it is all jammed together when it arrives here, due to loose packing. One man says he received chicken and pie but couldn't tell the chicken from the pie. In some cases packages of apples have broken open and the apples arrive loose in a mail sack. In such condition it is impossible to determine to whom the food is addressed, and the headquarters officers fall and consume it themselves. Ten bags of mail come into the sanitary train every day.

On Sixteen Week Schedule.
The schedule of training for the sanitary train calls for sixteen weeks of hard work and it is expected at the end of that time these men will be ready for France.

Transferred to Base Hospital.
The following is a partial list of the men recently transferred from the 39th Sanitary Train to the Division Base Hospital: George E. Addis, Elliot Betts, John H. Caughlin, Richard B. Crim, Cullen R. Deeder, Homer Elliott, Louis D. Forgy, Harvey R. Forgy, Edgar Ertel, John B. Huser, Alfred P. Kendall, Leland C. Kennedy, Pearl Kitchen, Fred B. Ralph, Harry O'Connell.

Will Use Trained and Disciplined Forces
Army transports will be in charge of men in U. S. N. Service.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Bluejackets will man and naval officers will command army transports hereafter. Officials believe this will insure more efficient operation of the ships particularly in the war zone, where the strain of a crew is greatest, and so lessen the risk of destruction by submarines.

It is pointed out that the highly trained and disciplined naval forces is far more effective than a constantly changing civilian personnel. This is regarded as particularly true of the fire room force upon which a ship's speed largely depends.

OFFICER CHARGED WITH MURDER

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 24.—Dr. William J. Condon, army medical reserve officer charged with murder Feb. 17 of John V. Piper, a graduate student at Rutgers College will take the stand tomorrow. More than a score of witnesses testified today for Dr. Condon. The defense attempted to establish an alibi for the accused and offered evidence to discredit contention of the prosecution that Piper's body was concealed in the cellar of the

DOLLAR TORRENT SWEEPS BIG LOAN NEARER ITS GOAL

Official Figures of Liberty Day Subscriptions Were Unavailable Last Night

Indications are That the Three Billion Mark Has Been Passed In Drive for Second Loan of $5,000,000,000—Officials Express Belief That Maximum Sum Will Be Reached—McAdoo Stirs Southern Districts.

Washington, Oct. 24.—A torrent of Liberty Day subscriptions has swept the liberty loan nearer its goal by hundreds of millions of dollars. How far forward the huge total had been carried by this, the banner day's activities, no one could tell tonight. Indications based on meager and scattering returns, were that it had reached or passed the three billion minimum but still lacked approximately $2,000,000,000 of the maximum hoped for. This statement was made at 9 o'clock tonight by the treasury department.

Much Still to Be Accomplished.
"Indications are that Liberty Day subscriptions to the second liberty loan brought the total for the $5,000,000,000 drive close to $3,000,000,000, but there is no official assurance that this mark was passed."

The department's estimate was based on returns and estimates from most of the twelve federal reserve districts filed by wire at 5 p. m., eastern time today. At that hour, however, the campaign still was in full swing through the greater part of the country, tens of thousands of persons were standing in line at banks and other subscription agencies and there was no reliable gauge by which the outpouring of dollars could be measured. The full measure of the nation's answer to the call for funds cannot be taken, officials asserted much before the end of the campaign next Saturday. There is unanimity of opinion, however, that much has to be done if the $5,000,000,000 mark is attained.

Storms throught the east laid low many wires leading to Washington tonight and badly crippled telegraphic communications, complicated the obtaining of accurate returns. "If the $3,000,000 mark has been reached the drive already can be termed a success," says the department's estimate. "Secretary McAdoo named this figure at the outset of the campaign, but he desired that $5,000,000,000 be subscribed if possible."

Official Figures.
Official figures, representing subscriptions reported to the reserve banks, gained $360,000,000 yesterday and up to the close of business last night showed a total of $1,731,058,000. The following figures showing officially reported subscriptions were made public at 9 p. m.:

District	Official
Boston	$295,700,000
New York	735,719,000
Philadelphia	54,946,350
Cleveland	192,769,000
Richmond	73,543,000
Atlanta	14,416,450
Chicago	204,865,000
St. Louis	53,417,050
Minneapolis	71,250,000
Kansas City	29,273,000
Dallas	32,252,950
San Francisco	73,247,300

Every report received tonight at the treasury bore the same burden—great response of the people to the loan. The inclement weather in the east interfered somewhat with elaborate preparations for the day but elsewhere the program was carried thru enthusiastically.

President Subscribes.
President Wilson not knowing of some plans in the making by the publicity bureau for the taking of his subscription subscribed thru a local bank several days ago for $15,000, sending his check for $15,500 in part payment. The fact that the president had bought his bonds was not known until today when a photograph of his signed application appeared in a loan advertisement. Tonight the president heard a loan speech at a local theater.

"The two brightest spots in the day's campaigning," the treasury announced tonight, "were the Dallas and Atlanta districts. Secretary McAdoo aroused tremendous enthusiasm in Atlanta and tonight messages came from there saying the banks were swamped with subscriptions. The Dallas district began its campaign early today with Galveston going past its minimum."

Galveston wired that the people there had "given till it hurt." Every city and hamlet in Texas held a liberty bond day meeting and wonderful results ensued. Like the Atlanta district it was unable tonight to give more than a rough estimate of the day's progress.

PRO-GERMANS PUT TO ROUT BY IOWANS

Aspinwall Citizens Are Lined Up for Liberty Bonds at Enforced Meeting.

Manilla, Ia., Oct. 24.—After they had been refused the use of a hall at Aspinwall, a strong German town for a liberty loan meeting and after the arrest of the owner of the hall John Brus, by a United States marshal, seventy-five citizens of this place, went to Aspinwall this afternoon, closed the stores, routed out the citizens and got during the one day practically all of the town and township's quota of bonds.

All persons who did not buy bonds are being investigated. The city marshal of Aspinwall today was ordered to resign by the state defense council, Manilla itself is a German community.

The action by the local men followed an attempted bond meeting at Aspinwall last night. The hall owned by Mr. Brus had been rented for the occasion, but when local bankers and speakers went to the town the hall was dark and Brus could not be found. Citizens of Aspinwall on the streets laughed at the liberty loan solicitors. Brus was arrested about 10 o'clock this morning.

The delegation today in fifteen automobiles was headed by Mayor Roscoe Saunders. Many of the members were Germans.

When the cars entered the town they stopped in the street and Mr. Saunders, standing up in his car, ordered all stores closed and all persons to come to the Brus Hall where a Liberty Loan meeting would be held. Mrs. Brus, wife of the man arrested early in the morning because he refused the use of the hall for the meeting last night, opened the building. Many subscriptions were taken from the crowd that gathered at Mr. Saunders' order.

Later in the day, solicitors went out from the hall as headquarters and worked the town for bond applications. All property holders were given a chance to buy a bond.

PETROGRAD COUNCIL ADOPTS RESOLUTION

Soldiers and Sailors Declare Salvation of Country Lies in Conclusion of Early Peace.

Petrograd, Oct. 24.—The Petrograd council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates on Monday adopted a resolution proposed by Leon Trotsky, president of its executive committee, declaring the salvation of the country lies in the conclusion of peace as quickly as possible. The resolution contains declarations accusing Premier Kerensky of a desire to deliver Petrograd into the hands of the Germans and their imperialist allies and also of openly favoring the German empire.

As long as peace is not concluded, however, continues the resolution, the committee must defend Petrograd and restore the army to the status of a combative force.

In consequence of this resolution the Petrograd council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates has decided to form a revolutionary general staff for the defense of Petrograd.

HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

Feature of Wednesday's Session is Address By Governor Lowden.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 24.—The Illinois Highway Improvement association in session here today elected W. G. Edens, of Chicago, president; Thomas Suddeth, Springfield, treasurer; Robert W. Dunn, Chicago, secretary and General Counsel. The feature of the session today was the address by Governor Frank O. Lowden, who urged the approval of the proposed $60,000,000 bond issue for permanent road improvement. In addition to giving Illinois an elaborate system of excellent highways, it probably will be available about the time the war closes and would serve to give employment to vast numbers of men who otherwise would be idle, should the expected depression follow peace. Governor Lowden also urged the liberal purchase of liberty bonds, declaring unless the American government is properly financed a Teutonic victory would be a possibility and in that event, no farmer could feel sure that he would remain in uninterrupted and peaceful possession of his land. He also dwelt upon the value of bonds as an investment.

MARKED DECREASE IN INTOXICATION CASES

High Price of Booze and Intensive Employment Said to Be Chief Causes.

New York, Oct. 24.—A marked decrease in intoxication cases in the last three months attributed to the increasing cost of liquor and to more intensive employment for men due to war conditions and labor scarcity, was reported today by the municipal board of inquiry. Never before the report says, has the alcoholic ward in the city hospital had so few patients. At the chief city magistrates' office it was said similar conditions prevail in the police courts.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

BOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Minnie Keaton, of Atlanta, Ill., died this evening, as the result of injuries received this morning when the automobile in which she was riding was hit by another car at a crossroad. Several other occupants of the car were injured.

LOUISIANA CANE SUGAR WILL RELIEVE SHORTAGE

American Sugar Refining Co. Places Big Contract

Refiners and Distributors Will Withhold Supplies from Any Retailer Who Adds An Exorbitant Profit to Price Named by Government.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Two hundred million pounds of Louisiana cane sugar was contracted for here today by the American Sugar Refining company and will begin moving next week to relieve the serious shortage of the eastern states. For the 200,000,000 pounds the refiners paid about $13,000,000 or approximately 6 1/2 cents a pound. After adding the cost of transportation and refining it is estimated that they will be able to sell to the wholesalers at steadily reducing prices, beginning at 8.35 cents eastern seaboard and dropping to 7.25 by the end of the year. The latter figure is the seaboard price previously fixed by agreement for Cuban, Hawaiian and western beet sugar and the price the food administration expects to maintain.

With the refiners price at 8.35, the food administration announced tonight wholesalers in the northeast should sell at about 8.60 with the price decreasing proportionately with reductions by the refiners. This it was said, should mean a price of nine cents to the consumer at once and of not more than 8 cents by the end of the year.

Refiners and distributors are instructed to withhold supplies from any retailer who adds an exorbitant profit. To supplement this move organizations are being perfected through which prices in all sections of each state will be furnished to the federal food administrator, who will make them public locally and report to Washington with the names of any exorbitant profit-taking retailers.

AMERICAN FREIGHTER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Torpedo Launched by German Submarine Passes Beneath Her Keel.

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 24.—The lucky escape of an American freighter from being torpedoed by a Teuton submarine in the Mediterranean was related today by officers of the vessel now in this port.

Two days out from Genoa a torpedo was sighted close by, heading straight for the bows of the ship. Seemingly there was no prospect of escape. To the surprise of the officers when the torpedo reached the freighter there was no explosion. The explanation was that the ship was in ballast and was riding so high in the water that the missile passed beneath her keel. It was observed on the other side of the ship speeding harmlessly on.

INVESTIGATE ALLEGED SINN FEIN PLOT

Secret Service Agents Make No New Announcements Regarding Inquiry.

New York, Oct. 24.—While secret service agents today continued investigation ramifications of the alleged Sinn Fein plot in connection with which "General" Liam Mellows, Irish revolutionist leader is under arrest here, no announcement was made as to what their inquiry had brought forth. That other arrests are pending, however, was intimated.

Meanwhile an examination of the papers seized when Baron Max Von Recklinghausen, a German associate of Mellows was taken into custody, was being completed to determine more fully Von Recklinghausen's connection with Irish revolutionary activities.

These papers contain information of considerable value to the American government according to William J. Flynn, chief of secret service. Mellows was unable to obtain $7,500 bail under which he is held.

CANADIAN WHEAT BEGINNING TO MOVE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Under an arrangement between the United States food administration and the Canadian food controller large supplies of Canadian wheat are to begin moving at once by way of the great lakes to the eastern American flour mills so they may resume full capacity operations.

The wheat will be purchased thru the Canadian government at the same price as fixed for the American 1917 crop. Its coming will relieve pressure upon the American northwestern supply.

ARE BOUND OVER TO FEDERAL GRAND JURY

HAMMOND, Ind., Oct. 24.—Miro Mitrovich, president of the Montenegro Herald of Detroit, Mich., and Eliza Pavlichevitch, secretary of the paper, having heard here today and were bound over to the federal grand jury by Commissioner Charles Surprize in connection with the attempted assassination of the Montenegrin recruiting members who sought enlistments for the army thru the United States several months ago. The prisoners were taken to the federal jail at Indianapolis.

GUILTY OF VIOLATING THE ESPIONAGE ACT

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 24.—Twenty-seven German Socialists of Hutchinson county, South Dakota, were found guilty on three counts of an indictment charging violation of the espionage act in federal court here tonight. The jury returned the verdict after more than three hours' deliberation. Sentence will be passed by Judge Youmans tomorrow morning.

FRENCH TROOPS HOLDING GAINS NORTH OF AISNE

Meeting with Little Resistance from the German Crown Prince's Force

Over 8,000 Prisoners and Numerous Guns Taken—German Counter Attacks Northeast of Ypres are Reported Unsuccessful—Heavy Bombardments Continue in Verdun Sector.

General Petain's troops who made a brilliant dash against the German lines northeast of Soissons Tuesday morning at last accounts were holding all their gains and were meeting with no resistance from the forces of the German crown prince, except by means of bombardments. In addition to the great gains in terrain more than 8,000 prisoners and numerous guns were taken by the French.

Likewise the British and French armies in Flanders are maintaining all the positions won northeast of Ypres Monday. Here the Germans have delivered several counterattacks in the region south of the Loutholst forest, but have been unable to recoup any of their losses. Extremely heavy bombardments continue in the Verdun sector and in the region of Hill 304 the army of the German crown prince delivered a violent attack against the French. The enemy succeeded in capturing a French advanced position but later a counter-attack forced him to relinquish it.

In the Austro-Italian theatre large German forces have reinforced the Austrian line and apparently a big battle is imminent over the 23 mile front from Montebombon, south-eastward thru Flitch and Tolmino and thence southward to the Bainsizza plateau, which lies about ten miles northeast of Gorizia.

The Berlin war office reports the capture on the northern section of this front of positions near Flitch and Tolmino and also points in the northern part of the Bainsizza plateau. The Germans began their offensive after an intensive artillery fire in which specially constructed gas shells were thrown at various places. According to the Italian war office, bad weather intervened during the attack and the fighting died down to some extent. The official communication adds that Italians are unafraid as the result of the preparations of the Germans and Austrians and that the enemy will find them "steady and prepared."

Where the Germans obtained large numbers of reinforcements of Austrians in this region has not yet become apparent, but it is not improbable that some of them were sent post haste to the northern Russian front. If these troops had moved from the campaign in the Austro-Italian theatre they possibly have been sent to the western front where signals of distress by the army commanders necessarily have been up as result of the terrific pounding Field Marshal Haig and General Petain have given Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and German crown prince in Flanders and along the Aisne and before Verdun.

Emperor William has returned to Berlin from visits to Constantinople and Sofia and is now engaged in an attempt to straighten out the muddled political situation in Germany. It is stated that Chancellor Michaelis already has tendered his resignation to the emperor.

British shipping losses last week as the result of submarines or mines aggregate 25 vessels as against eighteen the previous week.

FRENCHMEN CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE

Paris, Oct. 24.—Pierre Lenoir and William DeSouchez were arrested today charged with trading with the enemy, in consequence of the investigation made into the source of the funds which were used for purchasing an interest in the Journal. Inquiries by the department of justice indicated that foreign funds were employed.

CONVENTION OPENS

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24.—The annual convention of the Christian church of the United States and Canada opened in this city tonight with an estimated attendance of 10,000 delegates. The convention will close Oct. 31.

Two colored men from Springfield, Chas. J. Ellis and Earl Ryder have received commissions at the training camp at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

A great boon to the travel loving American blue jacket is the free travel warrants good to any part of the British Isles now being issued to American officers and men as the result of an arrangement between the British and American governments. This free transportation enables the American to travel by rail and water from their base thru Ireland over to England and Scotland and back again within their allotted time of leave, usually ten days. It is extending to the Americans a privilege long since enjoyed by the British soldiers and sailors.

"IF THE WAR SHALL GO AGAINST US."

Gov. Lowden in a recent speech alluded to the cost of the war, and the necessity of our backing the war with all our means, in the following striking manner: "Does it matter to us what becomes of our factories and stores, our cattle and lands, our stocks and bonds, and bank accounts, if we lose this war? Better, infinitely better, for any real American that he should begin life anew without a dollar in the world, provided only that we win, than to have untold wealth at the end of the war, if the war shall go against us."

AMERICANISM THE ISSUE.

Colonel Roosevelt is of the opinion that Americanism is the real issue in New York City, and will make a number of addresses urging the re-election of Mayor Mitchell. It has come to this that the voters of that city are being asked if they wish a mayor of the timber and beliefs of the mayor of Chicago. Mitchell from the moment that war was declared has been patriotic and has done all that he could to assist the government and arrayed against him are all the discordant elements. The fight there is loyalty against all the subtle forms of disloyalty. The issue is one that Roosevelt can take up with his whole heart. It is of large concern to the country that Mitchell win, and the president himself must feel some anxiety over the outcome.

TILLING AN ANCIENT BATTLE FIELD.

The Greek government is developing a gigantic farming project for developing Macedonia, in which four thousand square miles will be farmed by 10,000 soldier farmers, mobilized like an army and living in tents on the farm land. The scheme embraces as a part of the unique farm one of the world's greatest battle fields, the battle field of Marathon. Today it seems necessary the world over to organize armies not only to fight with guns and bombs, but to battle for existence in supplying the men engaged in the trenches with food—one class seemingly as important as the other.

THE SUPPLY OF COAL IN FRANCE.

Coal importations in France were 400,000 tons less in August than in the same month last year, but the production of French mines was 1,000,000 tons more than in 1916, making a net gain of 600,000 tons in spite of submarine activity. The imports in August were 1,680,000 tons and the local production 2,666,000 tons. French mines are now putting out only about twenty per cent less coal than before the war, notwithstanding that a considerable part of the coal field is occupied by the Germans. The increased production places Paris out of danger of shivering this winter. They seem to be in better condition than we are here just now.

OFFICERS OF THE OLD FIFTH REGIMENT.

Colonel Frank S. Wood, former commander of the Fifth regiment, and Lieut. Colonel C. D. Center, his second in command, may go to France soon, according to a letter received in Quincy. Colonel Wood says that he and Colonel Center will probably go to the western front, where they will be schooled in warfare as practiced there in order to act as instructors to the troops, which will later be sent to France.

Captain M. Edward Fawcett, chaplain of the Fifth regiment, has resigned and will return home as soon as his resignation is accepted. Neither Colonel Wood, Colonel Center nor Captain Fawcett had been re-assigned to any organization of the 33rd division.

FRENCH SUCCESS.

The English people are wondering why it is that they have to hide in caves when the French are so successful in destroying German aircraft. A fleet of Zeppelins attempted a flight in France and seven of these valuable machines were destroyed before the fleet could make its escape. But air craft seems to bombard London and the English coast with impunity. Englishmen look across the channel and see the skill and daring of the French are keeping that country comparatively free from attack. To get to English territory the Germans are forced to fly over the channels with all its dangers if anything happens to their aeroplanes or Zeppelins. No wonder therefore that they are asking why they cannot have the same large success as that which crowns the French.

FOOD CONSERVATION.

With National Food Pledge Week only a few days off, the Food Administration has announced that its army of half a million men and women volunteer canvassers is mobilized and ready for the campaign under the various State Food Administrators.

Food Pledge Week begins Sunday, October 28 and ends November 4th.

The 500,000 canvassers reported on a preliminary survey several days ago that they were sure to get the signatures of approximately 13,000,000 American housewives to the Food Pledge. A million and a quarter of the country's 22,000,000 housewives already have signed the card promising to conserve food. This leaves between seven and eight million unaccounted for, and the Food Administration expressed the conviction that all of them will be pledged before the campaign ends.

Sunday, the opening day of the campaign, will be marked by war-food conservation sermons by the country's 100,000 ministers in the churches all over the land.

JACKSONVILLE'S NEW INSURANCE RATES.

A prominent Jacksonville business man remarked recently that he had received notification of the new rate on his stock of merchandise. This merchant has been paying $11 per thousand under the old rate. The new rate is $16.50 per thousand, or an increase of fifty per cent. It is stated on good authority that under the new rate it will cost Messrs. Hopper and Hofmann nearly $2,000 to carry $32,000 insurance on the grand opera house building.

It is presumed that rates on other business houses and stocks of goods and on residence properties will be increased proportionately. If the new rate remains in effect permanently it will no doubt result in many merchants and property owners reducing the amount of their policies. If this is done the result probably will be that the insurance companies will not get any more in the sum total of their receipts than was received under the old rates.

There seems to be something queer about the raising of local insurance rates. Just recently when the campaign for a bond issue to motorize the fire department was in progress the public was told that the motorization of the department would result in keeping the old rates in effect. Now the insurance companies are telling citizens that the reason for the raise in rates is because of the inadequate water supply.

A great many people have been foolish enough to believe that rates were based on fire losses, but evidently they have been laboring under an hallucination. It seems passing strange, however, that the insurance companies are raising rates because of a condition in the water situation that has existed here for more than a quarter of a century.

The new rates if based on fire losses for the past twenty years are surely unjust. If we go back, for instance to 1898, that is nearly twenty years ago. In that year part of the north side of the square burned. The largest fire since that time was the Andrews lumber yard which burned in 1914, sixteen years afterward. The most disastrous fires between those fires was the old livery barn on North Main street where the Cherry barn now stands and the Woods Livery barn on East Court street. Aside from the Andrews lumber yard the largest fires that have occurred since 1911 was the Greenleaf house which burned in 1911 and the Dinsmore house which burned in the present year.

To the innocent bystander it looks as though the insurance companies just wanted to raise the rates and any old excuse would do.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE
Somewhere in France I would like to be fighting, putting in licks for the land of the free; oh, it is woman's work, scribbling and writing, when there is scuffling across the blue sea. But I am fat and my whiskers are hoary, and they won't give me the least little chance; others must harvest the laurels and glory, somewhere in France, somewhere in France. When the war's over the boys will be telling, telling of valorous feats they performed; stories of marching and shooting and shelling, barricades taken and cities they stormed. I must be silent; I can't tell a story, I cannot boast of a dauntless advance; I am too fat to be gathering glory, somewhere in France, somewhere in France. Danger appeals to me, deeply I love it, but I must stick to my rusty old lyre; oh, slender soldier, your face I cover, here in my slippers, my feet on the fire! Gladly I'd go to the field red and gory, gladly I'd flourish the shotgun or lance; fat men, however, are barred from all glory, somewhere in France, somewhere in France.

SPRINGFIELD BOY HOME FROM FRANCE

Has Been With French Ambulance Corps—Drivers Get Five Cents Per Day.

George G. Strathern of Springfield, representing the Mutual Life Insurance company, and son, Grant Strathern, were Jacksonville business visitors yesterday. Young Mr. Strathern, who is about twenty-two years of age, just returned to Springfield a few days ago from France, where he has been in the service of the French ambulance corps since last June.

He can relate many thrilling experiences while in that service, as the unit of which he was a member was stationed near Verdun, Hill No. 305, where much of the fiercest fighting and most violent struggles between the opposing armies have taken place. He was discharged from the service some weeks ago on account of physical disability, and last Friday night landed at some Atlantic port from France. Ambulance drivers in the French service, he says, get 5 cents a day. It is his hope now to so recuperate in health that he will be able to join the U. S. signal corps, aviation section, and once more get back into the fight across the water.

Mrs. Winnifred Harrison Pleasantly Surprised.

Tuesday evening Miss May Harrison, 325 East North street, planned and successfully executed a surprise party for her mother, Mrs. Winnifred Harrison. The friends were posted when to arrive and they came in a body, arranged themselves in front of the house and at the appointed time made known their presence by a knock at the door. The unsuspecting victim was sent to open the door and her surprise can well be imagined when she saw before her a great collection of friends and neighbors who reminded her that her birthday was taking place and was entitled to a suitable celebration. Miss Laura Brune furnished a number of fine musical selections while social conversation and good cheer generally prevailed. Nice refreshments were served and many useful and handsome presents were tendered the good lady in whose honor the party was given and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Celebrated Wedding Anniversary.

Wednesday evening was the tenth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Oldham of Woodson. Rev. Oldham is pastor of Woodson Christian church and in honor of the event the official board of the church and their families were invited to assist in the celebration. The evening was pleasantly spent socially and with music and guessing contests. During the evening Dr. G. W. Miller in a few well chosen words presented Rev. and Mrs. Oldham with a set of sterling silver spoons and a coffee percolator. Dainty refreshments added much to the pleasure of the evening.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ROBERT FITZSIMMONS

More Than Three Thousand People Pay Last Tribute to Departed Ring Champion.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Robert Fitzsimmons, who died at a hospital here last Monday after a week's illness of lobar pneumonia, was buried today at Graceland cemetery. Funeral services for the one time champion heavy-weight pugilist were held in the Moody Tabernacle, conducted by the Rev. Paul Rader, who was an athlete in his college days on the Pacific coast.

More than three thousand persons from all walks of life attended the services and filed by the coffin at the close of the services. A large proportion of those in attendance made the cortege which followed the flower covered casket to the Graceland cemetery. "This man fought many battles," Mr. Rader said, "and tasted the sweets of victory more often than he did the acid of defeat. But he never fought a greater fight than the one with himself which led to renunciation of the old for the new man. It took courage to face the contemptuous laugh, the sneer, the doubt cast on his sincerity when the big athlete submitted to baptism by the little Baptist clergymen at Los Angeles. All the world despises a quitter, all the world admires a hero. Bob fought his final fight as he had fought his ring battles—with indomitable courage. The son of an Episcopal clergyman, his early training was never wholly forgotten and helped him in his final victory—that over death."

From the career of the former pugilist the pastor urged his hearers to draw its lesson with especial application to themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Doyle of Franklin were among Wednesday's visitors in Jacksonville.

COL. TRIPP TESTIFIES AT EAST ST. LOUIS

On Day of Riot Mayor Mollman Relinquished Reins of Government to City Attorney.

East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 24.—Col. Stephen O. Tripp of the adjutant general's office of the Illinois National Guard, testified today at the congressional inquiry into the East St. Louis race riots that on the day of the worst rioting, Mayor Mollman turned the functions of his office over to City Attorney Fekete.

"I'm not feeling well. I have been advised not to go out on the streets, as I might get hurt. I will get City Attorney Fekete to represent me," Colonel Tripp quoted the Mayor as saying.

Colonel Tripp said he returned to the city hall about noon and asked the mayor to accompany him and Colonel Clayton of the guard on an automobile tour of the city to find the best places to station troops. Colonel Tripp said the mayor replied: "No, I can't do it, you'll either have to get along with Fekete's assistance, or figure it out on the map yourselves."

"As far as I know," continued Colonel Tripp, "City Attorney Fekete was acting mayor all day long, altho Mayor Mollman remained all day at the city hall."

PROMINENT WINCHESTER CITIZEN IS SHOT

CHARLES SOUTHWELL, RETIRED MERCHANT SHOT BY WILLIAM DILL.

Southwell in Springfield Hospital in Serious Condition—Dill Has been Invalid for Many Years and He is Thought to be Deranged—Is Now a Prisoner in County Jail—Other Scott County Items.

Charles Southwell, a prominent citizen of Winchester, was shot and seriously wounded by William Dill Wednesday morning at about 10 o'clock. Mr. Southwell was raking leaves in front of his property, the second floor of which is rented by Mr. Dill, when the latter leaned out of an upstairs window and shot him. Mr. Dill has been an invalid for years and lived alone. County authorities had decided to have him removed to the county home, where he could be made more comfortable, and Mr. Dill thought that Mr. Southwell had used his influence in having this action taken. And as he did not want to go to the home, it is thought that this was the reason which led to the tragedy.

It was about 15 minutes after the shooting before anyone could get to Mr. Southwell's assistance, as Dill kept the crowd back by shooting in their direction, barely missing two or three. George W. Hogan and Sheriff Irvin Coultas talked to Dill from the street and induced him to surrender. Mr. Hogan and Sheriff Coultas then went up and arrested the man, and he was later placed in the county jail.

Mr. Southwell, who is a retired merchant and about seventy three years of age, was removed to the office of Dr. H. H. Fletcher for medical attention and was later taken to the home of his brother, William Southwell, in the south part of town. Dr. J. A. Day was then called from Jacksonville in consultation with Dr. Fletcher and it was decided best to remove the injured man to the Springfield hospital. Mr. Southwell was unconscious for some time but regained consciousness a short time before being taken to the hospital. The trip was made in William Carey's car, the two doctors, Mr. Carey and Bert Coultas all accompanying Mr. Southwell to Springfield.

The building in front of which the shooting occurred is located about one half block south of the southwest corner of the square, just across the street from the old McCauley house.

Dill, who is a man about 65 years of age, has been considered a paralytic for some years and has long been in poor health. It is thought by some that Dill's brooding over the fact that in destitute circumstances he was facing the poor house, together with his illness caused derangement and that the man was practically insane at the time the shooting was committed. However this is mere theory and the fact that the man kept the crowd back from Southwell's body after he had been shot seems to point to a spirit of revenge for some old, probably imaginary, grievance.

Mr. Southwell is rightly considered one of the prominent men of Scott county. He retired from active business life some years ago, devoted most of his time to looking after property interests. He has no relatives in Winchester other than his brother William, to whose home he was taken after the shooting. At a late hour last night no word had been received from Springfield relative to Mr. Southwell's condition other than the report that he stood the trip to the hospital very well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holt of Alsey were visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knapp left the first of the week for North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. James Overton left Tuesday morning on an early train for St. Louis, and from there will go to Indianapolis to visit their son Ralph. The latter is now a second lieutenant in the quartermasters corps at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Frank Hazelrigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hazelrigg, and Miss Lucie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, were married Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. George W. Murray. Both are prominent and popular young people of Winchester. The groom assists his parents in their 5 and 10 cent store and Miss Smith has been a clerk there for some time. They have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

Wilfred Hamilton of Roodhouse was a business visitor here today.

Mrs. W. F. Gibson arrived this noon from Greenfield to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson.

The ladies of the Riggston church have had to postpone their oyster supper which was to have been given Oct. 26, as some repairs on the furnace had to be made before the church building could be used.

DEFINITE ALLOTMENT OF COAL FOR CANADA

Washington, Oct. 24.—Under a definite allotment of American coal for Canada, announced tonight by the fuel administration, about 2,000,000 tons of bituminous and 700,000 tons of anthracite will be permitted to move across the Canadian border during the next two months.

The allotments which will materially reduce the volume of exports, were arranged in consultation with the Canadian authorities and after a review of statistics showing the dominion's fuel consumption during the past year and the future needs of its industries and domestic consumers.

It was announced that Administrator Garfield had insisted that Canada be treated as well as the union in the matter of coal, but no better and that the Canadian government recognized that the United States was warranted in taking the present step to protect the interests of its consumers.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Our Society

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Our Society Jacksonville has always been noted for its good society.

This was due in large degree to the class of people who made up our early settlers, most of them being Americans, and from the two opposite sides of Mason and Dixon's line. There were more of the better class Southern people here than in most of the Western towns of the Twenties to the Forties, and there was a fine class of New Englanders or New York State people. With them came some splendid Irish, Scotch, or English men and women. The "Yankee" had had superior school advantages, many of the Southerners had occupied good social position before coming here, and the Irish and British immigrants had seen more of the world than the others, making up thus for other lacks of those times.

Above and beyond these features of previous residence and association, there was the advertisement and attraction of Illinois College and Jacksonville Female Academy, and of the State Institutions and schools which came later. All these collected many people as teachers and other professionals, who all combined to make this a superior place of residence, and a delightful home town.

Jacksonville never was a "bad" town, and it became a pre-eminently good one for the frontier life of those days.

The marked characteristics of the Yankee and the Southerner, and against each other, and improved each set. The Yankee respect for law curbed the high-rolling Western Southerner. The latter in turn stirred up the former, and promoted their chivalric ideas, especially toward women.

The strict church views of the one set took hold and controlled the other, and our people were exceptional in their appreciation of and devotion to both school and church; upon this foundation uprising a truly American and modern community, founded on Christian intelligence and worth.

It need not be said that the outgrowth of such conditions would be an ideal society, and Jacksonville possessed that up to and after the Civil War.

Did space permit, an analysis of many of the leading individual men and women of this village and town would show the naturalness of the resulting delightful social relations here.

Some persons may properly be referred to in this connection.

John J. Hardin had education, and had occupied fine social position in Kentucky, before coming here. As soon as his growing professional success permitted, he built a large house on the lot where Passavant Hospital is now, and that house stood with open door to the rising statesman's friends, acquaintances and political followers. A letter in the writer's possession, from the Rev. Wm. H. Milburn, tells of an early day reception at Hardin's, which we might now style a "garden party." That house stood thus until they brought the gallant soldier home from Mexico on his bier, and the people wept for the hero gone from their sight.

At the other end of town came soon, if not before the Hardin house, "the Seat" of Gen. Duncan, a hero of the War of 1812, fortunately saved to our state from death by foes of our land. The future Governor then built the house still standing back of the park which the statesman gave to our city, and known to us by his honorable name as Duncan Park. Into this Joseph Duncan took his little wife, used to the then best circles of New York City, and descended from the Rev. James Caldwell, hero of the Revolutionary War. The banks of the beautiful Illinois gave up its sycamores and other trees to fringe the driving ways up from each gate, for the friends of the hero of Fort Croghan to ride to his open doorway; from which he afterwards led the little New York lady forth to be the "first lady" of the glorious Prairie State. And for years, Gov. and Mrs. Duncan extended a boundless hospitality to all worthy the honor. Though the Governor passed on in comparative youth, the little lady stayed even to old age—after a temporary absence—in the mansion which her lover had promised her if she would but marry him. And why should not the descendant of the Caldwells wed a son of the Old Dominion who had helped to drive the foreign foe from our land?

A Yankee gentleman who came here at an early day was

NEWSY NOTES FROM MURRAYVILLE, ROUTE 1

Miss Clara Begnel spent Saturday in Jacksonville.

Miss Ada Story went to Exeter Sunday to attend the wedding of Richard Sandman and Miss Elsie Lear, which took place Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Harding and daughters Hazel and Edna spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Baughman.

Edgar Masters and family, Felix Gordon and Will Osorne spent Saturday in Jacksonville.

Henry Seymour is doing carpenter work at the home of Otis Finch.

L. G. Crouse attended the Seelye sale at White Hall Tuesday.

Thos. Hawk returned home Friday after an extended stay in North Dakota.

Chester Blimbling and family and Oliver Zahn and family were guests of J. H. Blimbling and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Felix Gordon spent Wednesday with relatives at Lynnville.

Felix Gordon attended the Correa sale at Manchester Monday and Elihu Wolcott, builder of the house which stood near the Square, and was afterwards a part of the Young Ladies Athenaeum. Mr. Wolcott was the father of Mrs. Wm. Kirby, whose elegance of appearance and manner came down from the Judge's maternal grandfather.

Another Yankee of more than passing intellect and charm of manner and speech was the Rev. Truman M. Post, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church and Professor in Illinois College; blessing St. Louis with the last years of the life of himself and his splendid wife. They dwelt here in what is now "Fair View," the Dr. Pitner home; but for years past their eyes have been engaged by the fairer view which God gives to those who have honored his name.

Rev. Livingston M. Glover was one of the leading people here—pastor of the First Presbyterian church from 1848 until 1880. His wife made welcome the rich or poor, and the boys of Jacksonville knew Mrs. Glover's sympathetic heart.

There were many others who kept open house to their friends, one being

Col. Wm. B. Warren, who lived where the State Street Presbyterian church is now, northeast corner of State and Church streets. The Colonel had been one of the soldiers which Illinois sent to the Halls of the Montezumas, and was related to Joseph Warren of Bunker Hill. Col. Warren's greatest wealth was in his attractive daughters, and youth met youth in happy union in that pretty, old-fashioned house.

Judge Brown was another Kentuckian, who dwelt on West State street, two doors east of Westminster street. During the War between the States, when the Fourteenth Illinois rendezvoused here, our people vied with each other in showering attention upon the soldiers, and Judge Brown gave a large party to the officers of that regiment.

Directly opposite was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Moore; he a descendant of an English Sir John Moore; his wife from distinguished Delaware and Pennsylvania families of Revolutionary days. They two ever extended the warmest and heartiest welcome to all who had any claim upon them. So they also entertained the officers of the Fourteenth in a fine reception.

David A. Smith was a Virginian who lived up to the reputation of the South for generous hospitality in his large house on Grove street. It is the writer's impression that he, too, entertained the leaders of the Fourteenth. Mr. Smith's brother-in-law, Marshal P. Ayers and his wife were fine entertainers. And Augustus E. Ayers and his handsome wife gave pleasant parties in their State street home.

The Rev. W. G. Gallaher of Grove street was another generous host, and further up street Dr. B. Gillett threw open his doors to his friends, for young and old.

Dr. Owen M. Long was one, possibly among others, who had the honor of having Abraham Lincoln at his house at a "tea party" as the six o'clock dinner was then called. This was in February, 1859, at Dr. Long's residence on East Court street.

President Sturtevant of Illinois College was one who entertained many notable visitors to the Athens of the West, in his ample home on Park street.

Prof. J. B. Turner was in the list of those extending social courtesies to citizens and to visitors, at his home on West College avenue.

J. O. King and wife rejoiced in the social amenities, in their house, south of the Academy, on College avenue.

But there are many others worthy of note and worthy of mention who gave heart and life and gaiety to those who dwelt under the trees of Jacksonville.

Old time parties were frequent and large, and the "set out" was often a full and fine meal, not the skimp "delicious refreshments" with which the papers nowadays hand out accounts of social gatherings. Nor were parties all to which people were here hidden in the days gone by. You could light into Jacksonville at the house of a friend, bag and baggage, with all the family and stay for days or weeks, without a formal invitation for that time.

But, alas! the old days and old ways are gone!

Are Told How to Find Relief from Pain.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I used to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."—DELINA MARTIN, 29 Bowers Street, Nashua, N. H.

Save Your Hair! Make it Thick, Wavy and Beautiful — Try This!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scuff.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

COLORED WOMEN DO SHARE TO HELP WORLD WAR.

When in this busy wartime every woman is doing her "bit", colored women are no less anxious than their sisters to help win world democracy. They especially hope to see democracy firmly established at home.

They are sewing, knitting, canning, buying Liberty Bonds, talking for patriotism, conservation and registration; in fact, every phase of C. N. D. work claims their attention.

In spite of handicaps and heartaches, they are offering and giving patriotic service as conclusive evidence of their loyalty to their country and their flag.

One of the most unique acts of this patriotic group of women in Illinois has been the adoption of the companies of the Eighth Illinois Infantry by churches and clubs.

Many of the boys have no relatives or friends in this section. They will be mothered and cheered by letters and tokens of kindly interest.

The Phyllis Wheatley Woman's Club and the Crispus Attucks Chapter of the Daughters of the American Flag are planning to send a Christmas box to Company D, now stationed at Camp Logan, Houston, Texas.

RULES FOR SENDING XMAS PARCELS ABROAD

It would probably be of interest to the public to know something of the rules which will be enforced regarding the sending of Christmas parcels to the American forces abroad.

The following three rules are essential to the mailing of Christmas parcels:

First—Mail which is intended to reach the soldiers in France by Christmas morning MUST be mailed not later than November 15th.

Second—Every Package must bear conspicuously the words "Christmas Mail", the complete address of the person for whom intended and in the upper left hand corner the name and address of the sender.

Third—Every parcel must be so packed and wrapped as to be easily examined, as no parcel will be dispatched to France unless it has the Postmaster's certificate that it contains no prohibited articles.

All parcels of Christmas mail must be brought to the main office for mailing.

Owing to the distance and manner in which these parcels will be handled it will be necessary that they be extra well packed.

Use only ink in addressing parcels and if a tag is used, address both tag and parcel.

All parcels must be fully prepaid at the 8th zone rate (12c per pound). Don't place Red Cross stamps or other stickers on the address side of the parcel, and be careful to not place stickers in such a way as to seal the parcel.

Such inscriptions as "Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, Best Wishes & etc. are permissible. Parcels which contain Perishable matter cannot be mailed, unless it is absolutely certain that the contents will not spoil within six weeks from the date of mailing.

Intoxicating liquors, friction matches and all poisons are unavailable.

Parcels for the Expeditionary Forces cannot be registered or insured.

The Postoffice Department urgently requests that patrons make their parcels as small as possible, preferably not over 10 pounds, as the smaller packages will be given preference in order that the greatest number possible may be accommodated.

The co-operation of the Public will assist materially in France to have their Christmas parcels on Christmas Day. Do Your Bit. Mail Not Later Than Nov. 15th. Address Fully. Pack Securely.

DEEPENING INTEREST IN REVIVAL SERVICE

Large Audience Heard Evangelist Hanley Preach a Powerful Sermon on "The Disappointed Christ"—Dr. Hanley Prefaced Sermon With Plea for the Liberty Bond Issue—Busy Day Planned for Sunday.

- Men's meeting at Hopper's shoe store, 10 o'clock.
- Meeting for employees of McCarty-Gebert, 2 o'clock.
- Friday evening will be young people's night.
- Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock a mass meeting for women. Dr. Hanley will speak on "The Woman Who Dared."
- Sunday night at the Grace church, Mass meeting for men.
- Sunday night at State Street church mass meeting for women.

The revival services at Grace church are deepening in interest. Wednesday night was marked by an unusual manifestation of the revival spirit. Dr. Hanley preached a remarkable sermon on "The Disappointed Christ." At the close of the sermon several propositions were made to which there was a ready response. An invitation was extended to those who were not professing Christians to come out and make the and a number came forward. Many others in the congregation signified an interest, either asking for the prayers of Christian people or expressing a desire on their part to identify themselves with some church organization.

Mr. Fisher introduced the service by singing a number of choruses. Among them were "Shine for Jesus Where You Are," "Just a Little Help from You," "The Best Friend to Have is Jesus." Misses Catherine Rapp and Dorothy Smith sang a duet very effectively, "In the Garden."

Dr. Hanley before the sermon announced the men's meeting for this morning at 10 o'clock at Hopper's shoe store, inviting all the men to come just as they were and to go when they pleased from the place of service. These services in the business houses are discussion of business topics and this morning Dr. Hanley will speak on "Big Business." He has planned a busy day for Sunday. Following his usual custom he will speak in one of the city churches in the morning and in the afternoon a great mass meeting for women will be held at Grace church, at which time he will speak on the subject, "A Woman Who Dared." He stated that this would be one of the greatest addresses and one of the greatest services that he would hold while in the city.

A special effort is being made for Friday night, which will be devoted especially to the young people in the colleges and high school. The main auditorium will be reserved for the young people and it is promised to be one of the greatest services of the entire series. This afternoon after school the booster chorus will meet for practice and will be heard again at a special meeting for children on Saturday night.

Dr. Hanley stated that he had something upon his heart and mind that he just had to deliver himself of, and for about five minutes he spoke most enthusiastically and hopefully with reference to the liberty bond issue that is now before the public. He urged everyone present to make arrangement with their banker for the purchase of at least one bond. He declared that it would be one of the most crushing blows that could be delivered to the Kaiser if the bond issue could be oversubscribed by a very large number of people. This would be the answer of the American people to Germany and her allies and to those who in our own country are opposing the war, as to the position that America occupies in this world crisis. Dr. Hanley said that a gentleman said once in his presence that it had been something over a billion minutes since Christ was upon the earth. He had questioned the statement until he applied the principle of multiplication to the matter and he found that Christ was upon the earth 1,250,000,000 minutes ago, and that if this bond proposition were fully subscribed it would mean about $5 for each minute since Christ was upon earth.

Mr. Fisher before the sermon spoke of Dr. Hanley's address on "Big Business" and said it was well worth hearing and would be one of the best things that would be heard from him.

The text for the evening was based upon the question asked by Jesus when He was in the garden, "What could ye not watch with me one hour?" With his fine power of description Dr. Hanley reviewed the incident of the watch in the garden by Jesus and His disciples just preceding His crucifixion, and stated that this was one of the most pathetic stories that he had ever found in all literature. This had been made the basis of a wonderful sermon by Mr. Sunday, entitled "The Three Groups," but it was his purpose to change it somewhat and speak upon "The Disappointed Christ." "Jesus had reason to trust His disciples in this crucial hour of His experience. They were His loved ones. He had the right to trust them and expect that they would be true to Him. The failure of our loved ones to meet the responsibilities that they owe us is always the hardest. He had given years of preparation, of counsel and companionship to His disciples and by His perfect example had fitted them to meet the severest test. They had heard His wonderful discourses, had seen Him perform His great miracles, and when the time of their final testing came they were unable to stand the test and measure up to what He had the right to expect of them. "And what was true of the disciples is also true of the Christian of today. He has the right to depend on us in the time of testing. We are familiar with the centuries of His conquests, the wonders of His works, and in view of all these we too often fall and give way in the face of the power of the evil one. One of the surest methods that the devil has used against mankind has been the ease with which he has put the followers of Christ to sleep. Often it is true that he finds a church that he can lull into quietude and sleep and inactivity, and when this is true they are stripped of their courage and of their effectiveness as professing Christians. The devil has never yet won in a pitched battle with the soldiers of Christ. His greatest success has been attained in his ability to put the church to sleep. Too often it is true that Christians are willing to die for Christ but they cannot stay awake, cannot be honest and square with Him, but are ever ready to fall asleep."

The entire sermon was illustrated with personal experiences and incidents drawn from real life, and the entire service produced a very profound impression. At the close of the earnest exhortation quite a number responded and filled the front of the church, some coming forward to place their letters in one of the churches and others to make the profession for the better life.

JAMES H. SILCOX DIED SUDDENLY WEDNESDAY

Pioneer Resident of County Passes Away at Home of His Son, James H. Silcox, Jr., 834 West North Street—Organic Heart Trouble and Acute Indigestion Caused Death—Coroner's Inquest Held.

James H. Silcox, a pioneer resident of Morgan county died suddenly at the home of his son, James H. Silcox, Jr., 834 West North Street Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Owing to the fact that no physician had been in attendance on Mr. Silcox and none could be summoned before death occurred, Coroner Rose notified and empanelled a jury and held an inquest Wednesday evening.

The jury was composed of Dr. L. H. Clampt, foreman; James Stout, G. W. Patterson, J. H. Scott, Louis A. Cain and M. S. Meyer, clerk. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict that death was caused by organic heart trouble, superinduced by acute indigestion.

Mr. Silcox had been in usual health but had complained of feeling badly Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning. His son wanted to call Dr. J. M. Wolfe who lives next door early Wednesday morning. However, Mr. Silcox did not believe in doctors and would not permit one to be called.

The son went to Concord Wednesday morning, returning home in the afternoon. He talked with his father for some time and then started to town. When he reached the Pacific hotel he received a telephone message from his wife saying his father had died.

James H. Silcox was born in Jacksonville Nov. 26, 1834 and his entire life was spent in this county. Many years ago he moved to the vicinity of Concord where he took up farming. It was there he was united in marriage January 18, 1857.

He is survived by his widow and the following children: Charles F. Silcox of Peoria, W. E. Silcox and Robert Silcox of Upland, Calif.; Chester S. Silcox and Richard A. Silcox of Los Angeles, Calif.; James H. Silcox, Jr., of this city. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Jane Purdy of White Hall.

Mr. Silcox was considered one of the successful farmers of the county and followed it for many years. In 1888 he retired from active farming and removed to Concord where he resided until nine years ago. He then removed to Upland, Calif., where he has since made his home, making frequent visits to his old home. He had expected to depart for California next week to spend the winter.

Early in life Mr. Silcox united with the Christian church. He was a man of high ideals, ever ready to assist the poor and won and held the friendship of all with whom he came in contact. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made, word being awaited from his children in California.

IMPORTANT MEETING AT Y. M. C. A.

Active Steps Taken by Representatives of Four Counties to Secure the District's Share of the $35,000,000 Needed for Work in the Army.

At the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday noon there was a meeting of representatives of four counties to confer regarding the securing of the apportionment due from this district of the $35,000,000 needed for the national army Y. M. C. A. Certainly nothing can be more important than this. Mayor H. J. Rodgers presided and told the meeting of what he had heard when he was in Chicago and said it was impossible to express the interest that was manifested in the case and the importance of the work. He says that in the trench lines where the men are obliged to remain for as much as 36 hours at a time, there the Y. M. C. A. carries them tea and coffee and other good things to cheer them as much as possible. Our boys are in a far land without friends and whatever attention we can pay them is for their welfare and to our credit. When they come back from the trenches they are greeted at the Y. M. C. A. building and dry clothing is given them and other help extended to them.

Tells of Experiences at Front.
E. C. Wolcott of Chicago was present at yesterday's meeting and told in a thrilling manner the awful barbarities of the Germans and sufferings which our men are obliged to undergo. He also emphasized the importance of the Y. M. C. A. work, meeting needs which no other organization does. Buildings are erected and supplies furnished and amusement offered, and every effort made to conserve the health, morality and good cheer of the boys.

W. C. Wolle, a young man employed by the Y. M. C. A. at Ft. Riley, Kans., was present and gave a wonderful account of the work. He said that he was needed there but when they told him of the importance of the money campaign he yielded and came out to do what he could. Especially did he and Mr. Wolcott dwell upon the evil results to the men from diseases begotten by improper conduct, which are making terrible inroads upon the men, and emphasized the great importance of combatting this evil by giving the men something better to do. Saturday afternoon and Sunday the men are at liberty and then is when Satan gets in his work, and it is very unfortunate when any cantonment is near a large city.

Mr. Wolle says that prohibition does prohibit in Kansas and booze is hard to get, but other troubles are common there and when the men have a day and a half off and are hunting something to do they are in danger of getting into mischief. He gave a graphic picture of life in Camp Funston. When a man arrives there he in the first place gets a bath and a suit, and then he is given a cot and assigned to his proper place. The green building belongs to the Y. M. C. A. and there every effort is made to conserve their welfare and happiness. There are various departments in the Y. M. C. A. and each has its own work. He said that in two days one Y. M. C. A. building issued 30,000 sheets of writing paper and there were nine others which issued as many each.

The men call for Bibles and there are many interesting religious experiences and all goes to show the great importance of the work. He said the Y. M. C. A. workers are on duty from 5 in the morning until 11 at night and it is remarkable how often men are ready and willing to hear the story of the cross. One man in Chicago had two boys in the service and he said he wanted to do everything he could, even to his last dollar and his own life if necessary.

Expense of Work Great.
The expense of the work in Europe is necessarily very great. Transportation comes high and all kinds of food costly. The work in the prison camps, that is, in camps of allied prisoners in German hands, is very interesting. A trusted agent is permitted by the Germans to visit them, he endures great hardship and suffering in so doing. Packages of food that will keep, directed to individuals will reach them. When an advance is made by the allies many prisoners are taken, and these are the ones to be remembered.

Mr. Wolcott told of one very remarkable incident. He said D. B. Forgan, the king of American financiers, had never been interested in Y. M. C. A. work but when this $35,000,000 proposition was put up to him he entered into it heartily and many other great financial men had done the same thing, even to the astonishment of the army workers.

Plan of Campaign Explained.
The different representatives of the counties were told that it was hoped and rather expected that this district, comprising Cass, Morgan, Scott and Pike counties, would give as their quota of the $35,000,000, 40c per inhabitant of the various counties. It is the intention of the Y. M. C. A. to help the French and English, and in fact all nations with the allies, and the Russians and Italians will not be forgotten. The work is of such importance that it needs no comment, and is one of the means of winning the war.

The following gentlemen were present at the noonday lunch: J. S. Findley, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, Dr. Edward Bowe, T. M. Tomlinson, M. L. Pontius, W. G. Goebel and H. J. Rodgers, all of Jacksonville; J. J. Bergen, Virginia; Rev. J. Edward Artz, Ashland; P. G. W. Fuller, Woodson; J. A. Weeks, Arenzville; C. W. Easley, Winchester; Henry Cade, Murrayville; G. D. Baring, Manchester; J. K. Cunningham, Murrayville; F. L. Hanscomb, Pittsfield; Charles E. Pettit, Griggsville; W. K. Mertz, Chandierville; Fritz Haskell, Winchester; W. C. Wolle, Camp

Funston, Kans., and E. C. Wolcott, of Chicago.

The following are the county officers who will call together representatives of the county by towns or townships and organize the county by appointing officers in each locality:

Scott: Judge Funk of Winchester, chairman; Fritz Haskell, Winchester, lieutenant; will meet Oct. 31st in Winchester and have accepted their apportionment, $4,200.

Cass: J. J. Bergen, Virginia, chairman; Rev. J. E. Artz, of Ashland, lieutenant. Meeting will be Wednesday noon, Oct. 31st; apportionment $7,000 accepted.

Pike county: R. T. Hicks, Pittsfield, chairman; Rev. Charles E. Pettit, of Griggsville, lieutenant; meeting Nov. 1st at noon in Pittsfield. Apportionment accepted of $12,000.

Morgan: Pres. C. H. Rammelkamp chairman; meeting Saturday noon, Oct. 27th, at Y. M. C. A.; apportionment, $14,000.

Organization of the city of Jacksonville will follow later.

BOY CAUGHT PILFERING
AT GRACE CHURCH

Wednesday evening during the revival service at Grace church, the custodian, Mr. Huff, was making an inspection of the building to see that everything was all right. As he approached the door leading into the room used by the members of the choir for hanging their coats and hats two boys ran away from the entrance. Mr. Huff went inside the room and caught a boy about 15 years of age in the act of robbing the purses which the members of the choir had left there.

The boy when he saw Mr. Huff attempted to escape by another door but could not get it open and was seized by Mr. Huff. The young man fought like a tiger and Mr. Huff called for help and E. G. Saye heard the call and went to his assistance and the boy was overpowered. He then collapsed and confessed, begging that his parents be not told of the affair. The young man had a nickel and penny in his mouth which he had taken from a purse. He was questioned by Mr. Saye and found to be a member of a well known family. Upon promise of mending his ways he was released, as both Mr. Huff and Mr. Saye believed that he should have another chance.

Properly Protected Plates

The two most important elements in a battery are—the plates and the insulation that keeps the plates apart.

Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation properly protects the plates from contact with one another.

Electricity can't work through the rubber, the acid electrolyte doesn't corrode it. And thousands of tiny threads make possible the vitally essential movement of the electrolyte from plate to plate.

MOLINE MAN BOOSTS FOR FARM ADVISOR

DR. W. E. TAYLOR CONSIDERED
AN AUTHORITY ON AGRICULTURE.

Asserts County Agent Returns a Dollar For Every Cent He Costs—Farmers Should not Expect too Much First Year.

Dr. W. E. Taylor of Moline is not only an operator of large tracts of farm lands in different sections of the United States but is considered by many the best practical authority on farming in our section. He has spoken several times at our Chattanooga and at farmers meetings in our county and all who heard him were convinced that he knew the business of farming.

Dr. Taylor thinks a good farm advisor returns a dollar for every cent he costs.

Moline, Ill., Oct. 22, 1917. Mr. Frank J. Heintz, Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Mr. Heintz:

In reply to your letter asking my estimate of a farm advisor, I will say without hesitation that a competent man in that capacity is, in my judgment, an indispensable factor in developing better farming.

I am very familiar with the activities of three advisors in this immediate locality who are doing magnificent work. These men spend the greater part of their time among the farmers, instructing them in the matter of raising alfalfa, rotating crops, selecting seed, and feeding stock. Through their influence hog cholera has been eradicated, and sanitary conditions have been greatly improved on the farms.

In my judgment, if your county will secure the right kind of a man, his services will return to the farmers one dollar for every cent expended.

Admish your farmers not to expect too much the first year, but to co-operate with the advisor in every possible way to increase his efficiency.

Yours very truly,
W. E. Taylor,
Director of Soil Culture Department,
Leere & Company.

CARL HEMBROUGH IS SUCCESSFUL FARMER

His Home, "Cedarcroft," One of the Inviting Places of the Whole County.

One of the thriving and interesting districts of our county is Asbury, a vicinity where the land is rich, the residents progressive and thrifty, with every evidence of prosperity. The name of Hembrough is identified with that of Asbury and one can hardly run amiss of members of that worthy family. A short time since the writer had the pleasure of a visit at Cedarcroft, the romantic name given by Carl Hembrough to his pleasant home a short distance east of the church. Here Mr. Hembrough has a comfortable farm of 160 acres, supplied with good outbuildings, a neat and inviting home and everything necessary to make life happy. He is a son of the late William Hembrough and from his father received very excellent instruction. Mr. Hembrough is a first class farmer as every one of his neighbors know. This year he has 60 acres in corn. Like many others he prefers the Reid Yellow Dent corn and says his field will easily yield 60 bushels to the acre. He also has 20 acres of oats for which he used the Texas White seed. He also uses Boone County White corn but prefers the yellow. He has no wheat this year but he has one corn field which has rather gone contrary to ordinary rules, because he is raising on it five crops. But the other side of the story is this: it was a pasture which had not been broken for forty years and of course had been fertilized by numerous flocks of animals, so it was very strong. When Mr. Hembrough first plowed it he broke the sod about 3 inches deep and then followed with a sub-soiler 5 inches more, so that he turned it up thoroughly. This was done as early as possible in the spring and then later he went over it thoroughly with a disc which left it in fine condition and when he pulverized it it was ready for planting, and his crop was abundant. He plows and cultivates the corn in the shallow modern way, as many times as circumstances will permit, four, five and six cultivations being given a field. He does not cut very much corn but husks mostly from the stalk.

Mr. Hembrough raises a good many hogs and he likes the Red Durocs the best. His early pigs he prefers to have come in March and feeds his sows some slop, tankage and oats. He has one long shed which he divides into separate compartments for families and then cares for them carefully. He is particular to give his hogs clear water and the best of feed, and says the better you treat them the better they will treat you and the more money you will make. His spring pigs he puts on clover as soon as they are ready to eat, and he showed with considerable pleasure a field which was well set in that valuable crop. Along in August he begins to feed corn and also adds tankage, thus giving a well balanced ration, and in that way secures excellent animals. He generally sells them when they are eleven months old and gets them up to approximately 250 lbs. without much difficulty. He does not do much in cattle but sells his stalk fields to his neighbors. He raises a few calves and sells them when young.

Mr. Hembrough believes in housing everything he can. He has a long shed, 12 by 40, in which are a wash house, coal bin, work shop and a 2,000 bushel corn crib, and beside that is another shed in which he can stow away a lot of hay and oats for the winter. Another shed 12 by 20 feet, houses his automobile and vehicles, so that he is well supplied with storage space for all his property. He thinks very well of sheep although at present he has none, but considers them very good property and a wise thing to have on the farm. When visited Mr. Hembrough was pulling up his old hedge with a steam tractor, as it was a little irregular and had about served its best days.

GENEROUS DEED OF LADIES OF SINCLAIR.

A short time since a number of the ladies of Hebron church and others met at the home of Mrs. Schafer and had an apple paring and canning of apples given by Mrs. Mattie Jumper and her brother Maurice. Mr. Jumper brought the apples in his Ford car, making the trip of 14 miles in 25 minutes and is quite a little satisfied over the fact that he did not break a jar on the way. The gift is most acceptable and it is only to be hoped that many more will go and do likewise.
